

Commencement of J. N. D.'s Journeyings.

Mr. Darby, who seems from the very first to have had a great love of travelling, or rather for carrying the truth of God from place to place, soon after the formation of the meeting in Fitzwilliam Sq. Dublin, found his way to Limerick. This was the first place he visited; and in a truly apostolic spirit, he has steadily gone on for fifty years. In the good providence of God, he had a most interesting visit to Limerick; the Lord opening the way for the ministry of the word. He held reading meetings to which many of the gentry and clergy came, and the truth found its way amongst them by the blessing of God. Mr. Maunsell, who lived there, worked with him, and was the active brother for a long time in that place. Mr. Darby afterwards came to Oxford at F. S. Newman's invitation, and then on to Plymouth at B. W. Newton's invitation: with what important results are stated elsewhere.
